

Corporate Memberships

2010

Guide Lines for Corporate Memberships

1. A Minimum of 3 memberships per corporation.
2. A Maximum of 6 memberships per corporation.
3. The corporation must maintain a Minimum of 3 memberships year round.
4. Corporate initiation is paid over a four year time period.
A five hundred dollar ($500.00) deposit must be submitted with the membership application. The total initiation cost of initiation for a corporate membership is ten thousand dollars ($10,000.00).
5. Yearly dues per membership must be “Paid in full by August 31st.”
The yearly dues rate per membership is fifty four hundred sixty dollars ($5,460.00). (i.e. 3 x $5,460.00 = $16,380.00)
6. Individual membership changes will be subject to a five hundred dollar ($500.00) transfer fee. Individual memberships can be transferred only once per year.
7. Individuals, who leave the company, can not retain their corporate membership.
8. All billing charges will be sent to the corporate address and payment must be made with a company check. The Corporation is responsible for all initiation fees, costs, yearly dues, food and beverage charges, locker fees, and all other charges related to the membership.
9. Charges such as food minimums, locker fees, bag storage, etc are based on the total number of individual memberships the corporation has.
10. All employees on the corporate membership list must be verified with company payroll records upon initial application or at any time thereafter upon Spring Mill Country Club’s request.
11. Corporate membership and all individuals who are members under the corporate membership are subject to and must abide by and obey all “Club rules and regulations”.
12. All initiation fees and dues payments are non- refundable under any circumstances. If a membership is suspended or cancelled for any infraction(s) of club rules and / or regulation; late or non- payment of monies due or conduct “UNBECOMING” a member, all fees, monies, dues, payments or charges are still owed.

The Spring Mill Country Club’s Rules and Regulation book is issued to all members. Additional copies are available upon request.